4. At all times hereinafter mentioned, the Defendant Police Officers were employees of the New York City Police Department (HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO

AS "N.Y.P.D.") acting within the scope and authority of their employment. They are being sued individually and in their official capacity as New York City Police Officers.

5. The Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, (HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO AS "City"), was a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York, and as such maintained the New York City Police Department and employed the individual Defendants sued herein.

7. That at all times herein the defendant, City, was negligent in the hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and promotion of the agents and/or employees of the N.Y.P.D.

8. That at all times mentioned herein the Defendant, City, knew or should have known of the discriminatory nature, bad judgment, and unlawful propensities of the officer involved in the violation of civil rights of the Plaintiff.

FACTS

9. On or about May 30, 2011, at approximately 7:00 P.M., plaintiff was driving with his friends, on their way to Brighton Beach for a day in the sun.

10. On the way they decided to stop at a grocery store to pick up something to drink.

11. After parking the car at the corner of E. 166th Street and Findley Avenue, in the Bronx, they walked towards the store.

12. Before they entered, they were confronted by the defendant officers, who had pulled up in a police van.

13. An officer stated, "We already told you guys to leave."

14. Plaintiff responded that he didn't know what he was talking about, as they had just arrived at the location.

15. The police then told plaintiff and his friends that they were going to be taken to the precinct to see if they had warrants. If there were no active warrants, they were assured they would be released.

16. Plaintiff asked why they were being arrested. An officer stated that they were being arrested for not complying with previous directions to get off the corner.

17. Plaintiff was taken to the 44th precinct and incarcerated for approximately five (5) hours before being released with a summons charging him with disorderly conduct.

18. On the court date, August 8, 2011, plaintiff consented to an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal (ACD).

19. Defendant City of New York has pursued a policy and custom of deliberate indifference to the rights of persons in its domain, including the Plaintiffs, in its procedures for supervising and removing, when appropriate, unstable and violent / incompetent police officers from their duties, including but not limited to the fact that Defendants City and/or N.Y.P.D. knew of the individual Defendant's tendencies to make unlawful arrests, unlawful seizures, and otherwise commit unlawful acts, but took no steps to correct or prevent the exercise of such tendencies.

20. Defendant City knew or should have known that prior to May 24, 2004, of the perpetration of unlawful arrests and other unlawful acts by the defendant was occurring, in that, upon and information and belief, there were prior reports of such unlawful conduct by this specific officer.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION FOR VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS

23. As a result of their actions. Defendants, under "color of law", deprived plaintiff of his right to freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

24. Defendant subjected Plaintiff to these deprivations of his rights either maliciously or by acting with a reckless disregard for whether Plaintiffs rights would be violated by his actions.
